

📣 CALLING ALL UNIVERSITY STUDENTS!

News and Information Bureau is now accepting interns for the 2023 NIB Internship Program.

We are looking for student interns in:

- Communication Arts
- Journalism
- Administrative related fields (Human Resources, Accounting, Budget, etc.)

For interested applicants, you may send your application letter, endorsement letter from school, your portfolio and CV or Personal Data Sheet (PDS) to ojt@nib.gov.ph with the subject line: Intern Application 2023

Application period will be from September 7 to September 15, 2023. Accepted applicants will be notified through email.

I. OBJECTIVES OF THE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM:

At the end of Internship Program, the student-interns shall be able to:

1. understand the News and Information Bureau's mandate and mission and how they work;
2. value media advocacy and information campaign and transparency in government operations;
3. learn the tenets of Constitutional guarantees on the freedom of the press and the public's right to information;
4. know how the media work, reasons for working with media and cultivate relations with them;
5. apply the knowledge, skills and principles in journalistic writing, media influence on public opinion, and administrative works;
6. be conscious of the "ground rules", code of ethics and etiquette in communications and administrative works;
7. acquire the confidence to interface with different clients as news makers, news sources and resource centers;
8. communicate effectively and efficiently the plans, programs and projects of the government and the private sectors; and
9. learn internship practices that are related to the student interns' discipline.

II. METHODOLOGIES:

1. General Introduction and Orientation Session (one or two sessions only)
2. Briefings and Supervised Instructions (from time-to-time, need-basis)
3. Real Work Experience and Exposure to assignments
4. Submission of Accomplishment Reports
5. Discussions of what interns have learned
6. Learning about PNA, PPS, MARD, FAD duties, responsibilities, concerns and policies
7. Assessment/Evaluation and Critique Sessions
8. Individual and Teamwork Exercises
9. Awarding of Certificates of Completion

III. DURATION (OJT TRAINING PERIOD): 150-300 Hours and based on Approved Work Program by PCO-NIB and the Academic Institution